

News

The 2010 World Stem Cell Summit will be in Detroit and will be co-hosted by U-M, Michigan State University and Wayne State University, Gov. Jennifer Granholm announced. It will attract more than 1,200 of the most influential stem cell stakeholders from more than 30 countries representing science, business, policy, law, ethics and advocacy.

Moral distress can plague nurses who work with life-or-death scenarios : "Nurses by far have the most intense and frequent experiences of moral distress," says Ellen Elpern (BSN '69), RN, APN, who works in critical care at Rush University Medical Center in Chicago.

In October at the American Academy of Pediatrics National Conference in Washington, DC, Kristy Martyn presented "Sexual Risk History Approach That Improves Teen-Provider Communication and Outcomes", results from a pilot study funded by the National Institutes of Health and National Institute of Nursing Research, The Michigan Center for Health Intervention (MICHIN). Coauthors included Cynthia Darling-Fisher, Michelle Pardee, and Irene Felicetti from the School of Nursing and Katherine Kristofik and Maribeth Guys from Oakwood Taylor Teen Health Center.

Kudos/Accolades

Dr. Margaret Scisney-Matlock, Professor, School of Nursing has been accepted as a Fellow (AY 2010-2011) in the University of Michigan, Medical Innovation Center (MIC). Congratulations to Dr. Scisney Matlock! More about MIC

Congratulations to Dr Julia Seng and Dr. Janean Holden on their induction as Fellows in the American Academy of Nurses.

Dr. Cynthia Arslanian-Engoren, Dr. Bonnie Hagerty and Dr. Kim Eagle received the Research Poster Award from the Institute of Nursing Research of the Emergency Nurses Association for their poster entitled, "The Effectiveness of the Aid to Cardiac (ACT) Intervention." The poster was presented in October at the 2009 Emergency Nurses Association Annual conference in Baltimore, MD.

In collaboration with colleagues in Tampa, FL and at Queensland University of Technology in Brisbane AU, Donna Algase co-authored a paper entitled "A Framework for Managing Wandering and Preventing Elopement" which appeared in the June-July issue of the American Journal of Alzheimer's Disease and Other Dementias.

Kudos/Accolades

Congratulations to Dr. Patricia Rouen ('09 PhD, '80 BSN) who won a "runner up" award for her poster entitled "Menopause Symptoms in Women with Diabetes: Glucose Control is an Important Correlate of Severity" presented at the 20th annual meeting of the North American Menopause Society. Co-authors are Dr's Sarah Krein, Joyce Roberts and Nancy Reame.

Barbara Barnes, graduate family nurse practitioner student, will publish her paper "A Literature Review on CAMRSA in the US: Clinical Information for Primary Care Nurse Practitioners" in the Journal of the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners. In addition, she has had an abstract of her work accepted for presentation at the Michigan Nurse Practitioners Annual conference in May. This work is a result of her work in N699 with mentor Dr. Deborah A. Sampson and reader Dr. Cindy Darling Fisher.

Dr Deb Sampson was invited to present her research as a Brodie Visiting Scholar at the University of Virginia School of Nursing on October 20, 2009.