

Have you ever Considered Becoming a Nurse?

The University of Michigan School of Nursing
GENESIS II Project Presents:

The GENESIS Summer Research Program – EnAct* June 14th– 26th, 2009

- ◆ Two week tuition-free summer residential internship at the University of Michigan School of Nursing
- ◆ Attend mock nursing classes
- ◆ Visit/ shadow nurses in their work environment
- ◆ Work with a faculty researcher and mentor on projects related to nursing
- ◆ Learn strategic college preparatory skills

Applicants should:

- √ Be students entering grades 9-12 considered economically or educationally disadvantaged or racially underrepresented within the nursing field or from a medically underserved area.
- √ Be interested in health careers, especially Nursing.
- √ All applicants must have earned a B or better in all high school math and science courses and have strong writing skills.

For More Information or an Application

Contact :

University of Michigan School of Nursing, GENESIS II Project
(734) 936-1615 - www.nursing.umich.edu/oma

GENESIS : Gaining Excellence in Nursing Education: Students Intensifying Scholarship is a program of The University of Michigan School of Nursing.

Directed by Patricia Coleman-Burns, Ph.D

EnAct*: Exploring Nursing As a Career for Tomorrow